New Website is an Online Library of Love Life Guidance and Advice

New York City, 2012

Dr. Thomas Jordan, New York City clinical psychologist and founder of the LoveLifeLearningCenter.com, constructed his website as an online library of articles that provide clinically verified solutions to a range of love life problems. Troubled by the absence of accurate information about love life difficulties on the internet, Dr. Jordan created the Love Life Learning Center as a resource with an evolving base of articles on a range of important love life topics from falling in love, dating dilemmas, to recovery from a breakup or divorce.

Launched in 2012, LoveLifeLearningCenter.com is the premier online resource for accurate information about the adult love life and its problems and solutions.

Dr. Thomas Jordan is a clinical psychologist, psychoanalyst, speaker, professor, and faculty member of NYU's Postdoctoral Program in Psychotherapy and Psychoanalysis
